Daily Lectionary Readings Psalm95
Micah 7:8-20
Mark 14;16-31

Today's Scripture Verse: Who is a god like you, pardoning iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of your possession? He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in showing clemency. (Micah 7:18)

What it means: Great misfortune befalls those who violate the ways of God, but God is both merciful and just to those who seek to live in fellowship with God. Most of Micah's prophecy is focused upon the sad results of unfaithfulness, but at the end of his book his word is one of forgiveness and grace.

Our time of reflection: It is good to hear your message of forgiveness, God, because all of us need our weaknesses to be understood. May we remember that your grace is given so that we may be strengthened in our resolve to follow your ways and make amends for any wrongs we have done to others, and in this renewal may we find peace.
