Daily Lectionary Readings Psalm 150
 Hosea 5:15-6:6
 2 John 1:1-6

Today's Scripture Verse: Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early. (Hosea 6:4b)

What it means: The Book of Hosea is a deeply passionate writing that talks about the jealousy and sorrow of human love and compares it to the sorrow God feels for those who are unfaithful to God in spite of God's love for us.

Our time of reflection: God, may our love for you grow deep and constant, and be reflected in the care we feel for others.
