Lectionary Readings

Psalm 128
Esther 1:1-21
Acts 4:13-31

Today's Scripture Verse:

Whether it is right in God's sight to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge; for we cannot keep from speaking about what we have seen and heard. Acts 4:19

What it means:

This is the response given by the apostles Peter and John when some town leaders tried to get them not to speak about Jesus in their community, because their message was disruptive. It conflicted with what most people believed.

Reflection:

God, we pray that we may never be dissuaded from speaking the truth as we see it because others do not agree with us.
