Daily Lectionary Readings
Psalm 8
Exodus 2:11-15
Romans 11:33-36

Today's Scripture Verse: O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! (Romans 11:33)

What it means: This celebratory verse reminds us of our need for humility before the God who is beyond our imaginings.

Our time of prayer: God, may we be always open to your truth. May we keep our minds and hearts ready to listen for what you may be saying to us at any moment of our lives. May we respect the beliefs of others and recognize our own constant need to understand more deeply the ways you are working in our world.
