Daily Lectionary Readings      Psalm 119:65-72
Exodus 11:1-10
Matthew 23:29-36

Today's Scripture Verse:      Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous, and you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' (Matthew 23:29-30)

What it means:      Few of the remembered saints were beloved by most people in their own time. We should always be careful about condemning those who rejected the prophets of an earlier day while we remain blind to the prophetic voices of our own time.

Our time of prayer:      God, we thank you for the prophetic wisdom that is present in every age, and we pray for the wisdom to listen for it. May your voice still be heard in our world today.
